

Introduction for Professional Audiences

---

It is my privilege to introduce our speaker today.

Kevin Snyder is a recovering motivational speaker who has traveled the world presenting leadership training programs and inspirational keynotes to over 1,150 organizations in numerous countries and all 50 states. He's also the author of several books, his best-seller titled "Think Differently to Achieve Success."

Prior to launching his speaking and writing career, Kevin earned his Doctorate in Leadership and worked in Student Affairs at universities across the country, most recently serving as Dean of Students for High Point University.

But before we get started, two fun facts about Kevin:

- First, he lives on a 40-foot sailboat which he currently docks on the coast of North Carolina.
- Second, he recently lived his childhood dream of meeting Bob Barker and winning on the game show, "The Price Is Right!"

Give a warm welcome to our speaker, Kevin Snyder!!
